Interesting Happenings Among Department Heads and Others

OFFICE DEPARTMENT

His many friends were glad to see Mr. J. A. Glass perambulating about the plant for a few days last month. Mr. Glass was paying the plant a short visit and his regret was plain to be seen when he returned to his duties at Toledo.

A letter from Herb Grau, who is in the mid-continent field on company business, states that aside from the heat, mosquitos and mud he is having a good time. Herb writes the Utco News is more than welcome not only to himself but to all the National Supply Co. store men.

Mr. L. F. Bennett, an old resident of Torrance, has recently been added to the accounting department staff. His first name is Louis, his middle name Frederick. Call him what you like so long as it is not "Mr."

Web Cedarlof of the sales, is spending his vacation at Convict Lake, about 30 miles north of Bishop. We hope he leaves a few fish in the lake as some more of us anticipate a trip to that region this year.

Floyd Hill spent a week of his leave motoring to San Francisco.

Connie Brant has had a hard time trying to explain the skin missing from her nose. Karl Hall insists it could easily have happened in Aiken's easy-riding Overland. Others have theories regarding the influence of Tia Juana.

Ed. Timbs has sold his home to Mr. W. J. Cox, of the assembly department, and moved to Redondo Beach to live until his new home in Los Angeles is completed.

Which reminds us that the cheery and accommodating Miss Grady, of the record room, left us last month to become the bride of Mr. Cox. The best wishes of the Utco News and her many friends go along with the happy pair.

We are all glad to see Mrs. Young, chief steno, back at her desk after several weeks' absence on account of illness.

Among those added to our engineering department recently are Mr. A. C. Watley and Mr. Jack McDonald. Mac is an old resident of Torrance and is well known to many of us. He's wholly unattached, heart whole and fancy free, too, girls.

We grieve with Mr. Gillette, of the tool designing department, who recently suffered the loss of his six-year-old son. Mr. Gillette wishes to thank the boys in the engineering department for their floral remembrance.

Our genial district engineer landed another huge jew-fish recently and passed out regular steaks to the boys around the place.

Mr. J. A. Enos, Ed. Timbs' able assistant, has moved to our fair city, wife, children, bag and baggage, Dodge and all. Welcome, old kid. Torrance needs you as you need Torrance.

Mr. Henry F. Rees is understudying Floyd Warthan now. Floyd's job has become so big and involved that it has been necessary to install a second Elliott-Fisher machine in his department.

While we have Fred—Mr. Henry F. Rees, we mean, in mind, we might say that he is planning an extensive tour of the capitol of the world. We are not prepared to say whether he plans on taking his family. At any rate he has at last leased his ranch to oil operators and is busy figuring future royalty checks.

Forrest Young also now comes in the category of oil magnate. There'll be a lot of men to replace around this town one of these days—there'll be so many new millionaires.

Spud Murphy is kept busy these days in training the U. T. Co. stable of boxers. So far the F. E. outfit has the edge on us, so we won't say any more about it.

Mrs. A. Shugy and Mrs. S. O. Carruthers, of El Monte, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess. They all had a pleasant time at Hermosa Beach in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Parks and Miss Zada Hastie were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shriener, of Hammerton, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Van Dine, of Detroit, Michigan, are visiting Mrs. Van Dine's mother, Mrs. Boyd, and brother, Eugene W. Boyd, of Arlington avenue. They attended the Shriners' convention in San Francisco and visited in San Diego before coming to Torrance. Mr. Van Dine will return to Detroit July 1, but Mrs. Van Dine will remain during the summer.

SURPRISE SHOWER

A surprise shower was tendered Mrs. D. A. Barnard, of Vista Highlands, last Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Gilbert. The afternoon was pleasantly passed with a number of friends and neighbors and refreshments were served. Mrs. Barnard received many useful and pretty gifts.
